

I object to the attempt by the Consumer Banking Association to impose the established business relationship clause on the people on the Indiana no call list. I feel that if my number is on the do not call list then my wishes should be honored. Watering down the law with exceptions makes the law worthless and also contradicts what my intent which is to not be contacted. If I want to talk to a business, I'll call them.